   3) Acknowledgement of intent to pay fees is requested annually by June 30.

B. Special Assessments
   1) Fixed and/or time-specific (not to exceed three fiscal years) assessments or fees may be assessed all members in order to develop or implement a special Consortium project.
   2) A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members is required to assess and/or charge a special assessment.
   3) All fees and assessments must be reviewed, evaluated and reconsidered no later than three years after initiation.

C. Project Fees
   1) A sub-group of members who choose to participate in a specific project/initiative of the Consortium may be assessed a membership fee for participation.
   2) Projects should be reviewed, evaluated, and reconsidered as deemed appropriate by the participants.
   3) Project fees for opt-in services are due within 30 days of invoice and privileges to participate in future opt-in services may be restricted by the LOUIS Executive Board for members who do not make payments within 30 days.

D. Payment of Consortium Membership Fees
   1) Each member will pay all invoiced Consortium fees by end of business October 1 of each year or by end of business the first business day after October 1 if that date falls on a weekend.
   2) Each member that does not make payment by end of business October 1 or by end of business the first business day after October 1 if that date falls on a weekend, will be disconnected from all Consortium services and products October 2 or by end of business the first business day after October 2 if that date falls on a weekend.

3) Members who are disconnected will be reconnected only by paying the annual membership fee and a fee for reconnection equal to 10% of that member’s annual membership fee. Fees must be paid in full before reconnection is made.

4) A member will be considered non-current if disconnected until payment of all fees has been received by the Consortium.

5) At the end of each fiscal year, the Executive Director shall make an end-of-year financial report to the Executive Board and seek feedback and suggestions from the Executive Board members on the preferred use of the funds.

   1) All members are eligible to vote in the election of Consortium officers.
   2) Affiliate members and liaison organization members are not eligible to vote in the election of officers.
   3) Voting may not be conducted by proxy, absentee ballot, telephone, or any electronic means.

ARTICLE VI
Task Forces of the Consortium

SECTION 1: Work Groups
A. Appointment and Review
   1) Informal work groups may be formed by the Executive Board to explore specific issues, conduct research or prepare reports as necessary.

ARTICLE VII
Cooperative Programs/Projects Sponsored by the Consortium

SECTION 1: Cooperative, Sponsored Programs/Projects
A. Initiation of Programs/Projects
   1) The Consortium may approve the initiation and sponsorship of cooperative programs/projects involving two or more academic libraries.
   2) A two-third (2/3) vote of the Consortium members is required to approve the sponsorship of a program/project or initiative.
   3) The Consortium, through the Executive Board, shall establish procedures to maintain oversight of sponsored programs/projects or initiatives.
B. Grants
   1) The Consortium, through the Executive Board, may elect to submit grants on behalf of the entire Consortium and/or endorse or co-sponsor grants for approved programs or initiatives.
2) The Executive Board will review any and all proposals to be submitted in the Consortium’s name, and determine whether such sponsorship/endorsement is appropriate.

ARTICLE VIII
Parliamentary Authority

The Louisiana Open Meetings Laws, found at R.S. 42:11 et seq., shall govern the meetings of the Consortium and the Executive Board. All matters that are not addressed by the Open Meetings Laws shall be governed by the rules contained in the current edition of Roberts’ Rules of Order, newly revised. Any special rules of order the Consortium may adopt may take precedence over the Roberts’ Rules of Order.

ARTICLE IX
Amendment of the Bylaws of the Consortium

The bylaws may be amended at any meeting of the Consortium by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members, providing that a written notice of the substance of the proposed amendment has been provided to all members prior to the regular meeting at which the amendment is to be presented for action by the members.

ARTICLE X
Dissolution of the Consortium

Should the Consortium dissolve, all funds, if any, shall be held in trust for one (1) years, at which time the fund balance will be distributed among the members on an equal share basis.
